CURRENT STATISTICS

National Family Health Survey-5

This special issue critically examines the validity and reliability of the National Family Health Surveys and highlights the diversity across several demographic and health outcomes, its regional disparities, policy impacts, and new avenues of using data. pages 33–80

South Asian Crisis and the US

The allegations of American involvement in Bangladesh serve as a stark reminder to India's strategic community of the need to carefully consider the US presence in its neighbourhood. page 10

Religion and the Working Class

E P Thompson's work displays a deep ambivalence about the place of religion in the life of the past and the present. page 13

Donkey Migration

The pursuit of a lavish life in developed countries pushes youngsters to undertake a perilous journey, which turns out to be a sham. page 27
