Brief Report:

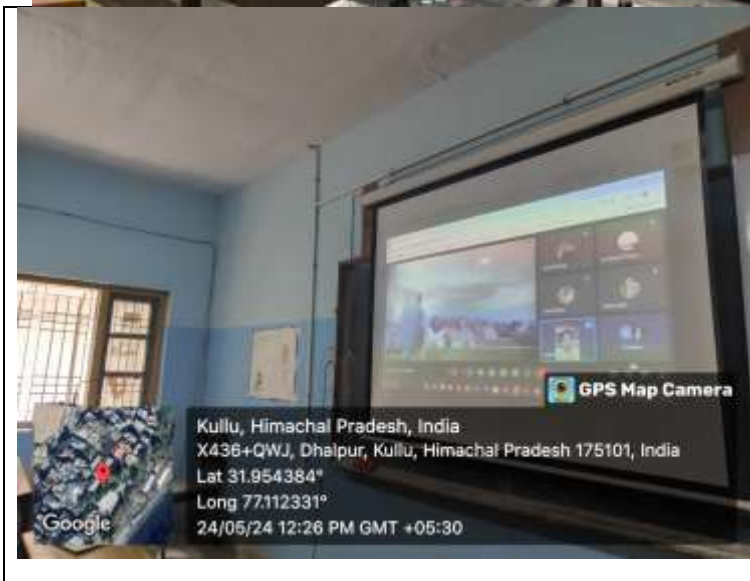

Under the direction of IQAC and in collaboration with the Department of English, the Department of Economics organized an insightful online lecture on Intellectual Property Rights on 24th May 2024. Dr. Padam Nepal Associate Professor of Political Science at St. Joseph's College in North Point, Darjeeling was the resource person for the lecture. The Post Graduate students of Economics, English, Tourism, and Political Science attended the lecture. The primary objective of the lecture was,

- To introduce the concept of intellectual property rights (IPR) and its various forms.
- To discuss the economic implications of IPR on innovation and creativity,
- To Explore the challenges and opportunities related to IPR in a world economy.

Dr. Padam defined IPR at the outset of his talk. He emphasized the importance of intellectual property rights in preserving human creations like as inventions, literary and creative works, symbols, names, and pictures. Dr. Padam explained how intellectual property rights promote innovation and creativity by providing crucial incentives to innovators and producers. He underlined the importance of intellectual property rights in promoting economic growth, creating jobs, and attracting investors. The lecture concluded with a Q&A session with students and faculty members. The Lecture was incredibly useful for the students of Economics.
