

PROJECT YOGDAAN DURING COVID-19

BY: NCC (AIR & ARMY WING)

DATED: APRIL 2020

Amid the unprecedented challenges posed by the COVID-19 pandemic, the National Cadet Corps (NCC) demonstrated its unwavering commitment to serve the nation. During the peak of the pandemic in April and May 2020, 53 NCC cadets volunteered their services under Project Yogdan to support the efforts of the district administration. One of the key responsibilities undertaken by these cadets was the crucial task of implementing and enforcing COVID-19 protocols, particularly regarding social distancing measures, to curb the spread of the virus maintaining social distancing measures in the market and adjoining areas of the city. Cadets also engaged in public awareness campaigns, educating citizens about the importance of maintaining safe distances and adhering to other preventive measures like wearing masks and hand hygiene through social media.
